3. The Procedures, as set forth in Exhibit 1 attached hereto, are hereby approved on an interim basis; provided, however, that any party in interest may file a motion and seek emergency relief from the Procedures based upon a showing of sufficient cause; provided, further, that the Debtors' and the other Notice Parties' rights to oppose such relief are fully reserved and preserved.

4. Any postpetition transfer of or postpetition declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, shall be null and void ab initio.

5. In the case of any such postpetition transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, the person or entity making such transfer shall be required to take remedial actions specified by the Debtors, which may include the actions specified in Private Letter Ruling 201010009 (Dec. 4, 2009), to appropriately reflect that such transfer is null and void ab initio.

6. In the case of any such postpetition declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including the notice requirements, the person or entity making such declaration shall be required to file an amended tax return revoking such declaration and any related deduction to appropriately reflect that such declaration is void ab initio.

7. The Debtors may retroactively or prospectively, in writing, waive any and all restrictions, stays and notification procedures set forth in the Procedures.

8. Within three (3) business days of entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall send the Notice of Interim Order attached hereto as Exhibit 1F, by first class mail and email, if available, to all registered holders, who in turn shall serve the notice down the chain of ownership to the beneficial holders, and to all parties that were served with notice of the Motion, submit a copy of the Notice of Interim Order (modified for publication) to The New York Times, and post this Interim Order and the Procedures to the website established by the Debtors' claims and noticing agent for these chapter 11 cases, Kroll Restructuring Administration LLC ("Kroll"), (<https://cases.ra.kroll.com/Joann2025>), such notice being reasonably calculated to provide notice to all parties that may be affected by the Procedures, whether known or unknown.

9. To the extent that this Interim Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in these chapter 11 cases, the terms of this Interim Order shall govern.

10. The requirements set forth in this Interim Order are in addition to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and applicable securities, corporate, and other laws and do not excuse compliance therewith.

11. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief (including any payment made in accordance with this Interim Order), nothing in this Interim Order is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable non-bankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity, priority, or amount of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

12. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003.

13. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b).

14. Other than to the extent that this Interim Order expressly conditions or restricts transfers or declarations of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock, nothing in this Interim Order or in the Motion shall, or shall be deemed to, prejudice, impair, or otherwise alter or affect the rights of any holders of Common Stock, including in connection with the treatment of any such stock under any chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order.

15. Nothing in this Interim Order or the exhibits thereto shall authorize any filer that is not an individual to redact the name, date acquired, number of shares held, or last four digits of TIN.

16. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of the Motion and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

17. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

18. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

19. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.
